

Excellence is defined as the state of going beyond what is average, normal, or expected. It draws from a Greek word, which means to "throw beyond," as with a javelin or shot put. We serve an excellent God, and He calls for all who follow Him to show forth that same Spirit of Excellence. This book shows, in a practical way, how to attain the walk of excellence. It stresses four principles that require us to seek God—"Vision (both personal and ministry), Calling, Perseverance, and Love; as well as how and why to walk in four disciplines—"Fasting, Prayer, Meditation, and Solitude with God. The walk of excellence is not required for us to be saved, but if we want our lives to count for something, then it is vital that we enter the realm of the excellent.
