

How many times can one get stumbled by the same stone of pain? Amongst losses without farewells, my hands are full. Songs which I could never mention anyone about but felt to the core are playing on the long-play inside me. Death is passing over railways nowadays. I did love life. I was breathing my memories that make my poison-taste catch fire with sparks of hope and my past that I cannot dare to tell. As I was vomiting out my mouthful anger, I was painting the past with laughters. Everything has cooled despite global warming! Coolness of wars and conflicts burn our world away. I was just about to pull the curtain open and invite moonlight inside, but I changed my mind. Never did I like you, Night that stole my blue sky. Nesrin Ozyayc?
